A COUNTRY IN PERIL!

Merion is a young mouse who has worked hard to overcome her physical disability and earn her place as a messenger for the Royal Message Service. Her life is upended when she stumbles on a plot of high treason. In this crisis LITE, the intelligence agency for the country of Lyleechee, is reestablished by Xander Shadow. Merion is recruited to the newly formed LITE Academy as an agent in training. Before she finishes the academy, she is called upon to use her cunning, courage and daring to help foil the plot to take over Lyleechee.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

A. G. (Amanda) Roberts writes books for children and young adults. Her writing stems from her love of books, especially books that transport the reader to a different time and place. She lives in Tennessee and you can see the influence of the southeastern USA in many of her books.
